Click on WRITING PROMPTS – VOICE AND TONE

you're spacing it out properly. Now it shows you where the spaces should be. It just doesn't add the spaces. So where you see line breaks is where it's suggesting you add spacing for paragraphs.

I will have specific ChatGPT-inspired prompts inside the designated section of The CopyCloset for you to use to produce better copy, faster versus aimlessly asking ChatGPT to write for you.

We are excited to see you use the tool!
